StatFox NFL Power Rating Lines - Week 14

 The StatFox Power Ratings are determined from a formula that is takes into account several key factors, including point margins, difficulty of schedule, team statistics and more. The ratings are typically not as reactive as those you will find elsewhere, and thus prove to be a great long term handicapping tool. Here are the StatFox Power Rating lines and edges for this week's games, with our exclusive home field advantage points built into each home team's rating and corresponding line. Note that the point edge between the Power Rating Line and the actual opening line is denoted for the team with the edge. Use the W/L column to keep track of the winners and losers.

GAME BREAKDOWN

Navy is working on a 13-game winning streak (8-5 ATS) in the series, the longest streak ever in the history of this storied rivalry. Both teams are among the nation's best in rushing offense—Navy ranks second (330.1 YPG) behind only Georgia Southern, and Army is eighth (254.0 YPG)—and they are two of the three worst passing offenses among FBS teams (only Georgia Southern averages fewer passing yards per game than the 83.6 Army averages and 90.4 Navy averages). Four of Army's losses this season have come by a combined 13 points, and the Black Knights dropped two other games by seven points or fewer. Navy senior QB Keenan Reynolds, who late last month was named American Athletic Conference offensive player of the year, is the NCAA's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns with 83.
